

STUDY ON ROADS (CAMINERÍA) AND TERRITORIAL RESOURCES IN THE ORS/RUP
NETWORK (PRELIMINARY STAGE)

This project will be study and identify the main roads and trails of the system of paths and trails both in the Canary Islands and in other Outermost Regions of the European Union (Ors/RUP), under the criteria of potentiality and use as territorial resources as well as proposing actions and measures of economic viability.

First name of the artist	Their Nationality	Function or involvement in the Project
João Madruga, Institute of Agricultural and Environmental Research and Technologies, University of the Azores.	Portugal	Project working group member
Sandra Silva, Camino Real Association (Madeira)	Portugal	Project working group member
Javier Gaitán Morán, Californios Amigos de la Historia y los Estudios Locales, CAHEL AC.	Mexico	Project working group member
Felipe Monzón Peñate, Universidad de La Laguna (Canarias)	Spain	Codirector working group member
María Candelaria Rosario Adrian, Museo Arqueológico (Canarias)	Spain	Project working group member
Carmen Benito Mateo, Museo Arqueológico (Canarias)	Spain	Project working group member
María Esther Martín González, Museo Ciencias Naturales (Canarias)	Spain	Project working group member
José Juan Cano Delgado, Cátedra La Laguna Patrimonio Mundial	Spain	Investigador principal

ORGANIZED: NETWORK

It's presented in public through physical, virtual, and mixed meetings; and adherences/proposals to the project are compiled, following the indications of current legislation and entities related to said subject.

The project will be presented publicly through public and academic meetings and will be promoted through social networks, the corporate website of the entities of the project's working group. With the results of these meetings, the scope of the project will be enriched, thanks to the contributions of the participants.